Dear Dr. Richman,

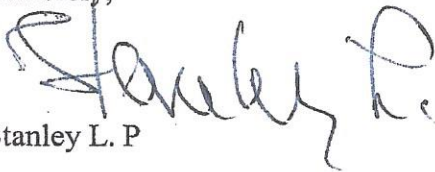

I'm writing to thank you warmly for all you've done to have me hearing properly again!

It had become a problem. I was missing things in conversation, as well as – professionally – in lectures and discussions. My dear wife Bonnie found it necessary to repeat herself.

These problems have disappeared, thanks to your meticulous, exemplary service. It was a special pleasure, for Bonnie and me, to have your generous and very thorough follow-up sessions, with help on cleaning the hearing aids and storing them overnight, help on the niceties of the batteries, help on replacing the filters, and a myriad of other details that we could not have mastered without your help.

We are both grateful to you and very much in your debt.

Sincerely,

Stanley L. P

PS: as Stanley's wife, I wanted to add my own expression of gratitude to his. I, along with many family members, friends, and colleagues, have benefited as much as Stanley has from his vastly improved hearing. He really wasn't aware of how often he was missing out.

With your expertise and patient guidance, Stanley has truly "mastered the art" of wearing his hearing aids. They are so comfortable he forgets he's wearing them and so unobtrusive as to be wellnigh invisible. Thank you, Dr Richman!

Sincerely, Bonnie P

PPS: And thank you, no exaggeration, for recommendation!
